

8way Telephone distribution module

8Way Telephone distribution module with mode 3 security socket RJ31X for security system interface, capable of up to 4 incoming lines bridged to 8 separate locations for each line, a test port can also double as a bridge port for another module for expansion for multiple telephone locations

Features

- Adjustable mounting for any location on the distribution board or hub
- 110 IDC terminations for precise connections
- Compatible for use of 110-RJ45 patch cords for complete patchable system
- Small compact design, easily installed and terminated
- 4 easy “quick release” tab supports for mounting
- ETL verified and UL 1863 listed
- TIA/EIA 570-C for home networking

Specifications

- 164mm long x 75mm wide x 30mm high
- Durable metal construction
- 110 IDC termination for precise connections
- Pair colour coding, all pins bridged internally from incoming line

Ordering information

- HM1010 8w Phone module 4 lines in 8 out with RJ31 security port